

ANZELA (Victorian Chapter) 2018 CONFERENCE AWARD

Would you like assistance to attend this year's conference in Cairns?

The theme of the 2018 conference is Capricorn and beyond: new frontiers in education and law. This theme explores new developments in education and law, with a particular emphasis on innovative ways of meeting traditional challenges and the needs of regional communities. For this ANZELA conference we want to extend our horizons beyond compliance and risk aversion, and look to new opportunities.

The conference is being held at the Rydges Esplanade Resort Cairns, on October 2-4 2018. For more information about the conference go to anzela.edu.au.

The Victorian Chapter committee is offering one award to a member of our chapter to help them attend this conference. The award will cover the conference registration fee.

To make an application, please submit 200-300 words on how you could support the work of our chapter and ANZELA as a whole. This could include

- Becoming part of the 2019 conference planning team, as the annual conference next year is being held in Melbourne
- Offering a presentation or seminar to Victorian Chapter members to help with their professional development
- supporting the objectives of the association which include:
 - Promoting and encouraging research, study, discussion, writing and/or dissemination of information about issues on laws relating to education
 - Organising and stimulating participation in conferences and meetings on the laws relating to education
 - Promoting the publication of articles, newsletters, journals and other literature for the purpose of these objectives

Applications close on July 27 2018.
